Attachment II

Agents immediately identified themselves as US Border Patrol Agents, to which the four subjects attempted to flee. Agents quickly apprehended three subjects, later identified as Erik HERNANDEZ-GARCIA, Victor Antonio SANTANA-GARCIA, and Rogelio Eduardo LOPEZ-DAVILA near the bundles. The forth subject was able to escape capture. Agents conducted a thorough search of the surrounding area and were able to locate four bundles of marijuana weighing a total of 105.92 kg (233.0 lbs.) Agents transported the four bundles of marijuana and three subjects to the Weslaco USBP Station.

On same date, DEA SA Dane Sorensen and TFO Ralph Garcia responded to the Weslaco USBP Station to conduct post-arrest interviews with HERNANDEZ-GARCIA, SANTANA-GARCIA, and LOPEZ-DAVILA. SA Sorensen advised the aforementioned subjects of their Miranda Rights individually in the Spanish language.

SANTANA-GARCIA advised Agents that he did not wish to answer any questions and SANTANA-GARCIA was not questioned.

HERNANDEZ-GARCIA acknowledged and waived his rights and admitted he was hired by an unidentified individual in Rio Bravo, Tamaulipas, Mexico to assist in smuggling the bundles from Mexico into the United States in exchange for being crossed into the United States. HERNANDEZ-GARCIA stated that he was transported by the individual to the river where he crossed with LOPEZ-DAVILA and SANTANA-GARCIA. HERNANDEZ stated that LOPEZ-DAVILA and SANTANA-GARCIA assisted him with carrying the bundles until they were arrested by the US Border Patrol.

LOPEZ-DAVILA acknowledged and waived his rights and admitted that he had met with individuals known only as PELON and MIKE who offered him work carrying bundles of marijuana from Mexico into the United States in exchange for $200.00 US dollars. LOPEZ-DAVILA stated that he along with SANTANA-GARCIA and HERNANDEZ-GARCIA had crossed the river from Mexico in rafts with the bundles of marijuana, and once in the United States, he along with SANTANA-GARCIA and HERNANDEZ-GARCIA carried the bundles of marijuana north, until they were arrested by the US Border Patrol. LOPEZ stated that this was the first time he had attempted to smuggle marijuana into the United States.
